

Children & The Internet

Releasing Potential, Minimising Risks.

Thursday 31st March 2005

CONFERENCE RUNNING ORDER

REGISTRATION & WELCOME

Time	Arrivals and welcome	Notes
9.00-9.25	Young People welcome delegates at arrival.	Delegates choose which afternoon breakout session they will be attending. Visit exhibition by conference partners.
9.28	Delegates asked to take their seats

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Time	Speakers	Notes
9.30	Jacqueline Holding, President C&W Jamaica	Opens conference with welcome to delegates on behalf of C&W Jamaica Foundation – the principal sponsor for the event.
9.35	Pauline Samuels, Country Manager British Council	The role of the British Council in supporting this event and education in Jamaica.
9.40	Stephen Carrick-Davies, Chief Executive Childnet International	Brief overview of the aims of the conference and expectations.

SESSION I: RELEASING POTENTIAL – LISTENING TO YOUNG PEOPLE

Time	Speakers	Notes
9.45	Larry Magid Journalist and Academy Judge interviews 4 of the Academy winners	Putting children and young people first Winners from Nigeria, USA, UK, Jamaica share their work and the lessons they have learnt. With work illustrated on the screen

SESSION II: RELEASING POTENTIAL – IN EDUCATION

Time	Speakers	Notes
10.00	Camille Facey Deputy Chair of C&W Jamaica Foundation	Introduces Session and Speakers
10.05-10.15	The Hon Maxine Henry-Wilson Minister of Education, Youth & Culture	Pre-recorded message for the conference
10.15-10.28	Ms Jackie Cousins, Acting Chief Education Officer and Head of Media Services Unit at the Ministry of Education, Youth & Culture	Official message of thanks to the Minister and give a brief overview of ICT in education in Jamaica

Winners & local young people move to their separate "stream" (2 minutes moving time)

SESSION II: RELEASING POTENTIAL – IN EDUCATION (Continued)

Time	Speakers	Notes
10.30	Camille Facey Deputy Chair of C&W Jamaica Foundation	Introduces following speakers
10.32	Richard Millwood Director of ULTRALAB.	Effective ICT practice in schools - Lessons learnt from around the world
10.50	Makonnen Blake-Hannah Jamaica Youth Ambassador	Reflection from Jamaican youth perspective
11.00 – 11.20	Camille Facey Deputy Chair of C&W Jamaica Foundation	How are we doing in Jamaica? Questions from the floor

Short 15 minute coffee break - served in registration area in exhibition area

SESSION III: RELEASING POTENTIAL – IN FAMILIES

Time	Speakers	Notes
11.35	Stephen Carrick-Davies introduces Panel Session
11.45	Trond Waage Former Ombudsman for Children (Norway)	Lessons from Europe - Effective use of technology to empower children in the home.
12.00	Anne Collier Director of Net Family News (USA)	Lessons from USA - Keeping up with children online – principles and practice
12.15	Barbara Blake-Hannah, Educational consultant (Jamaica)	How can Jamaican families best foster and capitalise on ICT opportunities?
12.30	Questions from the floor	Stephen Carrick-Davies to chair Q&A from the floor to contributors
12.40	Conclude session

LUNCH 12.45 -1.45 - Buffet style lunch served

Young people join conference for lunch and during the break show their winning projects

SESSION IV: MINIMISING RISK

Time	Speakers	Notes
1.45	Stephen Carrick-Davies What are the risks to children online?	Showing of Jenny's Story Film Introduces afternoon conference Breakout sessions
2.00	Choices of Breakout groups	Delegates move to breakout areas.

Breakout 1: INDUSTRY	Breakout 2: MEDIA	Breakout 3: CHILD-WELFARE	Breakout 4: KIDSMART TRAINING
Title: Responsibility and good-practice for Industry	Title: The responsibility of the media to protect children in interactive services	Title: InterAgency work and a shared responsibility	Mary Louise Morris Childnet's Education and Awareness Manager
Who 3x15 minute presentations Heba Ramzy CSR Microsoft (Turkey) Anthony Smith Head of Mobile Operations, C&W Jamaica Magnus Johannsen Vice President Business Development (Broadband) Cable & Wireless (West Indies)	Who 3x15 minute presentations Rebecca Shallcross Executive of Children's BBC Interactive (UK) Dr David McBean President of CVM Communications Group of Companies (Jamaica) Mr Cordel Green Executive Director of the Jamaica Broadcasting Commission.	Who 3x15 minute presentations Trond Waage Former Ombudsman for Children (Norway) Dr Paula Daley-Morris IT Education Lecturer, University of WI (Jamaica) Jamaican Child Protection Specialist (TBC)	Dianne Campbell IT Training Co-ordinator for professional Development Unit - Ministry of Education Working with a group of 30 teachers in a 2 hour session covering: ⇒ How new interactive services work (hands on IM and Chat session) ⇒ How children are vulnerable? ⇒ How to communicate to YP and parents? ⇒ Lessons learnt from the UK ⇒ Tools which could be adapted in Jamaica ⇒ Train the trainers opportunities. Continues through to 4.00 (coffee served in room half way through the session).
Chair: Herman Athias President of the Jamaica Computer Society and General Manager, MC Systems	Chair: Lesley Smith Director of Corporate & Public Affairs Cable & Wireless plc	Chair: Dr Alice Swann Child abuse specialist & Childnet Trustee
Issues: Codes of best practice for interactive services. Lessons from the fixed internet What Industry is doing – corporate social responsibility.	Issues: Moderation of online services for young people. The role of the broadcaster to educate & protect. Converged technologies and the future of interactive TV.	Issues: The rights of children. The need for Inter-agency co-operation. Responding to the new online dangers for children

Sessions close at 3.30 – refreshments served. Young People join the conference from their stream as do teachers from Kidsmart session.

SESSION V: MINIMISING RISK – COMMUNICATING WITH YOUNG PEOPLE

Time	Speaking	Notes
4.00- 4.20	Local Jamaican Young People and Winners from Academy	Tanya Eddowes and Helen Penn from Childnet International interview young people who share the lessons they have learnt, the way in which they want to be communicated to and what they want from the Net.
4.20- 4.35	Questions and Comments from the floor	Tanya to chair questions from the floor to the YP.

SESSION VI: NEXT STEPS

Time	Who Speaking	Notes
4.45-4.55	RESPONDING TO YOUNG PEOPLE Stephen Carrick-Davies Jacqueline Holding Pauline Samuels	Short 3 minute responses. What can NGOs, Companies and Government bodies do in response to the needs and wishes of young people? Drawing out lessons from the conference and final communiqué.
5.00	Formal Close of Conference	Delegates asked to complete their evaluation forms and give to young people.